

These wines are perfect expressions of where they come from. Some grape varieties are rare and unusual; the winemakers even more so. All our wines are low-intervention, thoughtfully vinified to reflect their environment and its traditions, and are selected to match our food.

BLACK GOLD
(FOR PINOT PURISTS)

Stapleton & Springer, Ben's reserve, Moravia, Czech Republic, 2015 £10.5 / £41 / £61
Pinot Noir is all its glory from one of the most respected producers in the Czech Republic. From a Terasy vineyard 210 metres above sea level with loess, sandstone and sandy soil.
Palmiet, Johan Meyer, Elgin, South Africa 2016 £67
Johan "Stompie" Meyer is the enfant terrible of South African wine making. Eschewing South Africa's big wine-making industry, Johan's focus is thoughtfully made low-intervention wines that are descriptive of land and vine in Swaartland & Elgin.

Waiting for Tom, Rennersistas, Burgenland, Austria, 2016 £76
Sisters Stefanie and Susanne Renner worked with Tom Lubbe of Matassa before taking over their family's winery and launching Rennersistas.

Klettgau, Markus Ruch, Hallau, Switzerland, 2016 £90
Markus Ruch is a biodynamic winemaker who honed his craft in Burgundy before returning to Switzerland. His vines are among the oldest in the region, planted on parcels that date back to the 14th century.
